Learner Attendance and Examination

The learner attendance has been satisfactory for the past 3 weeks as learners attended daily this term. The 2020 final examination has been scheduled as follows for grade 8 -11.

- The Grade 11 will start with CAT/IT practical on Friday 23 October
- Grade 10 will start with CAT/IT practical on Monday 26 October
- Grade 9 will continue with classes until they start on Friday 30 October
- Grade 8 will continue with classes until they start on Monday 2 November

The timetable is available on Moodle for parents to assist with monitoring at home. Learners that may be absent during examination must provide a medical examination or a 0 mark will be given. The school will still start at 7h30, therefore learners are expected to be on time. Learners should continue to wear uniform accordingly. The learners will be dismissed after writing examination, but intervention classes may be arranged with different groups by teachers. If a learner is not writing, they are allowed stay and study at home.

Interim Feedback /Reports

Interim feedback of the past three weeks will be issued to learners by Monday 26 October 2020. Parents are requested to engage and discuss the performance with their children.
